

BROKER EXAMINATION APPLICATION

RE 400B (Rev. 12/97)

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Please read all information on this form before completing.
- Type or print in ink.
- This is an original examination application and should be submitted only if you have not applied for this examination within the past two years. You may not be scheduled for more than one examination date at a time; therefore, do not submit more than one application.
- If you are simultaneously making application for both the salesperson and broker examinations, you must submit a separate package including qualifying documentation and fees for each examination to be scheduled. Fees are not transferrable from one exam to another and will not be returned.
- If you electronically recreate this form to facilitate completion on a computer, please be advised that the form should not be altered in any manner. To do so, could result in disciplinary action. Also, please make certain you do not delete any pre-printed information and are using the latest version of the form.
- If you do not qualify for the examination, you may submit any additional needed requirements within two years of the date when your application is received without an additional fee. Failure to qualify and pass the examination within two years of the date your application is received will require a new application and fee. Applicants may also be required to submit additional qualification documentation.

- Please do not call this office regarding your examination, unless your application has been on file for at least 2–3 weeks. Your examination will normally be scheduled at least two weeks after your application has been processed and qualifications approved.
- For security reasons you cannot inspect your test materials after the examination session has ended (Section 1798.40(e) of the California Civil Code).
- Please enter your personal mailing address on line #4. Use of a real estate school/business mailing address may cause a delay in mail delivery.
- The name you use on your examination application must be your legal name. Clarification and substantiation will be requested if there are discrepancies between the name on your application and the name on your transcripts.
- You may use a slide rule or a silent battery-operated calculator which does not have print out capability or have an alphabetic keyboard.

- Broker examinations are usually given: Each Wednesday or other weekdays as needed in Sacramento, San Diego, Fresno and San Francisco. In Los Angeles, examinations are offered on Saturdays only. Schedules and examination locations are subject to change.
- The following special scheduling requests cannot be guaranteed: a specific date or a specific exam location within the area you have chosen.

Due to the varying demand throughout the state, examination dates in some areas are filled more quickly than others. Requests for dates less than two weeks away from the date your application is processed and qualifications approved cannot be guaranteed.

- Only one examination date may be assigned. (See GENERAL INFORMATION on front page.)
- If you do not provide a date on line #10, you will be scheduled for the earliest available date in the area chosen.
- You will be scheduled once the Department receives and approves all documentation supporting your qualifications. Applications are not considered complete until your documentation is received.
- If, for any reason, you are unable to appear for the examination as scheduled, you must remit the proper rescheduling fee with either your original Broker Examination Schedule Notice (RE 401B) or a Broker Examination Change Application (RE 415B) to be rescheduled (Section 10213.6 of the B&P Code).
- Applicants with physical limitations requiring special accommodations must submit a doctor's letter with this application. Compliance with special requests may be limited by scheduling constraints and cannot be guaranteed. Please provide a daytime phone.
